FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EIU HONORS PROGRAMS AWARDS CEREMONY

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University's Honors Programs will hold an awards ceremony at 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 22, in Roberson Auditorium, Lumpkin Hall. The public is invited.

During the ceremony, the 1995 graduates will be honored, the 1995 Distinguished Honors Faculty Award will be presented and the Honors Continuing Student Scholarships will be awarded.

Barbara Hill, provost and vice president for academic affairs will present graduating seniors from University Honors and Departmental Honors with a token of appreciation from the Honors Programs.

The Distinguished Honors Faculty Award is given to an Eastern professor who has taught an honors course and has shown an exemplary, professional teaching attitude throughout the year. Recipients of the award are nominated by fellow faculty and honors students.

Continuing Student Scholarships are awarded each year to honors students who have demonstrated the ability to balance campus activities with challenging coursework. Scholarship recipients are
